

The Women's Ministry of Faith Christian Reformed Church Invites You to...

"Things We Couldn't Say"

Remembering the Dutch Resistance through the reflections of Diet Eman

Part I: Read her book

Things We Couldn't Say is the inspiring true story of Diet Eman (pronounced Deet Emon), a young Dutch woman who, with her fiancé, Hein Sietsma, risked everything to rescue imperiled Jews in Nazi-occupied Holland during World War II. Throughout the years that Diet and Hein aided the Resistance, work that would cost Diet her freedom and Hein his life, their courageous efforts ultimately saved the lives of hundreds of Dutch Jews. Things We Couldn't Say is an unforgettable story of heroism, faith, and love.

Part II: Come hear her speak

Date and Time: Thursday, Sept 25, 2008, at 7:00 PM

Location: Faith Christian Reformed Church of Elmhurst, IL

- Be inspired by Diet's personal story
- Listen to beautiful music
- View a display of authentic Dutch decorations
- Share special Dutch treats

Note: Although we highly recommend Diet's book, you are not required to read the book before coming to hear her speak. Books are available for purchase for $18.00. To register for this event and reserve your copy of the book, please sign up at the information counter at church, or contact the Faith Church office at 630-279-1776, or email: secretary@faithelmhurst.org. You may contact Pat Koning (630-832-2497) or Sarah Schuringa (630-279-0016) with questions.

If you have any Dutch delft, pewter, or authentic costumes that you would like to add to the display, please contact Kathy DeVries (630-749-3833).

\* This event is open to men and women. Please invite friends, family, neighbors, students, and co-workers to join us for this very special evening.*

